Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: GCSE Macbeth Trip – Monday 2nd February 2026

We are pleased to offer Year 11 pupils the opportunity to attend a theatre performance of 'Macbeth' at Alexandra Theatre, Birmingham on Monday 2nd February 2026. This enriching experience will allow pupils to see a live performance, which is aimed at GCSE revision and will support their understanding and preparation for their next English Literature mock GCSE exam.

The total cost of the trip, including entry to the event and coach travel, is £30.50 per pupil and will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis and places are limited. Payment must be made by Monday 15th December 2025 to allow us to confirm bookings.

Itinerary:

- Depart from HLA at 11.15am
- Event begins at 12.45am at Alexandra Theatre
- Depart Birmingham at approximately 3:00pm
- Estimated return to HLA by 4:00pm

Pupils are expected to attend in full school uniform. They may wish to bring a small amount of money for refreshments; however, we do recommend bringing a packed lunch and a drink. Pupils that have free school meals will have lunch provided for them.

We believe this will be a highly beneficial and enjoyable experience for our pupils, and we encourage early sign-up to avoid disappointment.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Yours sincerely,

Helen Riley
Associate Assistant Principal
